Where am I covered?

- ✓ You and any named drivers are covered to drive in the UK, Channel Islands and Isle of Man. You and any named drivers are also covered to drive in the European Union for up to 90 days. Additional countries may be available on request and for an additional premium, please refer to your insurance adviser.

What are my obligations?

- You must inform us without delay of any changes in your situation, including any named drivers. In the event of a claim, you must notify us as soon as possible.
- It's really important that you're honest with us when you're buying a policy or making a claim. Providing wrong or misleading information that you know could either help you gain financially, or cause us to suffer a financial loss, is fraud and pushes up the cost of insurance for all customers.
- Looking after your car - you need to make sure that your car is road worthy and safe to drive at all times, this includes ensuring all software or vehicle systems are updated as per the manufacturer instructions. You must protect your car and any equipment from being stolen or damaged.
- You must meet the terms of any endorsements. Endorsements are additional terms that apply to your policy; you'll find details on your policy schedule.
- You must use your car's equipment in accordance with the manufacturers' instructions, such as electric charging cables and tow bars.

When and how do I pay?

Please refer to your insurance adviser for details.

When does the cover start and end?

Please refer to your recent schedule for your cover start and end date.

How do I cancel the contract?

You're able to cancel your policy at any time. To do so, you need to get in contact with the insurance adviser who sold you this policy. How much money you get back will depend on how long you've had the policy for, and whether or not a claim has been made, or may be made on your policy.

Cancelling before the policy starts

If you cancel the policy before the start date, we'll refund you your entire premium.

Cancelling after the policy starts

If you cancel the policy after the start date of your policy, we'll refund you for a percentage of the premium depending on how much time is left on the policy, as long as no claim has been made, or may need to be made on your policy. Your insurance adviser may make an administration charge for cancelling your policy, on top of our charge.

We will work out the on-cover time used in the current policy period and refund a percentage of your remaining premium based on the following scale:

Within the first 14 days after your policy starts – Pro-rata*

- Up to one month's cover – 75%
- Up to two months' cover – 62.5%
- Up to three months' cover – 50%
- Up to four months' cover – 37.5%
- Up to six months' cover – 25%
- Up to eight months' cover – 12.5%
- Over eight months' cover – No refund

*Pro-rata means you'll receive a refund for the remaining time on cover calculated by multiplying the premium per day by the remaining days on cover.

If a claim has been made on this policy, or something has happened which might lead to a claim – then you won't receive any refund.
